COVID Challenge Judge Rubric:

Team number: _______
Project Title: ______________________________________________

COVID-19 Significance Score: ________/5
• The team did a good job identifying the problem
• The team is targeting a large potential impact
• The team showed credible research data to support its impact size claims and relation to the COVID-19 pandemic

Innovation/Novelty/Intellectual Merit (Theoretical) Score: ________/5
• The team has presented a clear and concise overview of its unique capabilities and state of development.
• There is very little fundamental technology or development risk left to resolve.
• The team has a solid Intellectual Property position as well as plans to protect it.

Progress on Project (Actual) Score: ________/5
• The team has outlined a credible and thorough plan for developing its first product, result findings, or service.
• The team has clearly identified its resource requirements, and these can be reasonably obtained.
• The team has a plan to derive additional funding from alternative sources such as government grants, friends, bootstrapping, bank loans, etc.
• The team clearly understands what additional people and skills it needs.

Broader Impact and Translational potential Score: ________/5
• The team identified large secondary markets or fields of impact.
• Idea is likely to make a substantial contribution toward the solution of the issue(s) it seeks to address.

Presentation Style Score: ________/5
• Was the title card complete with PID, Team name and participant list?
• Were visual aids (i.e. slides, graphics) clear and valuable?
• Was the pitch exciting and compelling?

Total: __________

Comments: